COHEN TODD KITE & STANFORD, LLC

Cohen, Todd, Kite & Stanford is proud of its deep roots in the Cincinnati legal community. Started as Cohen & Mack in 1894, Cohen, Todd, Kite & Stanford has evolved into a boutique law firm providing a full range of legal services and representing a diverse clientele. Our belief that each client needs and deserves individualized, efficient, and effective representation remains a core value. We ensure that an attorney with the appropriate level of experience and expertise handles each client matter. Where a complex issue requires an inter-disciplinary approach, we take care to maximize value to the client in staffing the project and in making sure that the matter is effectively coordinated to contain cost, yet achieve the client's goals.

While we provide a level of personal attention that is more typical of smaller firms, we nonetheless possess the expertise and professionalism of larger firms. As detailed in the Practice Areas and the Attorneys webpages, our firm brings together seasoned attorneys from a wide range of legal disciplines and backgrounds. In addition, we invest in the latest technology so that we have the best tools available to execute our work and to fulfill our clients' needs. Cohen Todd Kite & Stanford thus provides clients, of every type, with high quality legal representation across the spectrum of legal needs that arise in today's complex business environment and in personal matters.

In short, we combine the personalized approach of a mid-sized firm with big firm expertise and results. As such, Cohen Todd Kite & Stanford is uniquely positioned to deliver high quality, results-oriented service to all of its clients. This philosophy and focus has served our firm well over the last 125 years. We look forward to continuing that tradition into the future with our clients.
